

WOMAN WAS ELECTED PRES.

Miss Dobbs of University Heads State Teachers Association—Over 9000 in Attendance at Kansas City Last Week.

Miss Victoria Dobbs of Missouri University was elected president of the M. S. T. A. for the coming year at the meeting of over 9,000 teachers of Missouri in Kansas City, November 13-16.

The purpose of the meeting was to promote better education through out the state of Missouri and to better teaching conditions in every way. Part of the time was spent in general sessions and the rest of the sessions were departmental.

Some of the leading educators in the United States were on the program. Fred M. Hunter, Superintendent of Oakland, California schools spoke on "Character Education."

Henry H. Goddard of Ohio State University gave an address on "What Can Be Done With the Gifted Children in the Public School."

Thomas H. Briggs of Columbia University, New York, gave several addresses on educational problems.

Frank K. Freeman of the University of Chicago gave several addresses on teaching of hand-writing and mental tests.

Henry S. Curtis explained the new physical educational program to the teachers.

Gail Harrison of Columbia University talked to the kindergarten-Primary section.

Jesse H. Newton, president of the N. E. A. spoke Saturday morning on "Professional Organization."

Florence Hale, Agent for Rural Education in Maine, spoke on "Making Teaching a Cheerful Profession."

The Kansas City Public Schools did much to make the program worth while. Thursday evening 3,000 children from the high schools and grades sang. Their voices showed most efficient training. A cantata "The Walrus and the Carpenter" was given as a part of the program. The Kansas City Little Symphony Orchestra accompanied them and gave several selections.

Friday evening, games, drill and folk dances were given by over 1400 of the Kansas City children. These were beautifully done and showed excellent training.

Friday evening was frolic night. About 4000 teachers took part in the party lead by Governor Arthur M. Hyde, and Governor-elect, Sam Baker. Paper caps were provided for all. Jolly is the Miller, "Lobby Loo" and other musical games were played. The governors and educators showed themselves capable leaders for they have not forgotten how to play.

Mr. Charles R. Lamb, former president of three banks in Colorado, now bank inspector and salesman addressed the commerce students in Salesmanship last Thursday November 6 on the subject "Qualities Leading to Business Success."

Some interesting high lights of his talk are the facts that Mr. Lamb lost all his money, 35,000 acres of land and 4000 head of cattle two years ago when he suffered business reverses. He has set a goal for himself: "One hundred thousand dollars five years from now."

Speakers and successful business men, are appearing before the class every few days. Any student interested may get permission from Mr. Rogers to attend these lectures.

"The Meaning and Dedication of Armistice Day" was the topic of Mr. Miller's talk in Y. M. C. A. last Tuesday. It was the most interesting and most inspiring talk that has been given to the Y. this year. The cabinet promises some exceptional treats for December. The general topic is "The Spirit of Christ." The Y. M. C. A. is a challenge to every man in college. The slogan "Every Man a 'Y' and every 'Y' a worker," has been adopted.

Every member of Y. W. C. A. ought to be at the last meeting of the quarter tomorrow, Tuesday, November 18, and bring a visitor. A Thanksgiving program will be given.

The program last week was built around the topic: "What the Y. W. C. A. did During the World War." Ruth Lawrence told of the work in the United States and Julia Hankins told of the accomplishments in France.

Ruby Goodman read the Scripture reading which was followed by sentence prayers.

Cubs Demonstrate Ability in Make-up

Eight editions of the Courier have now been published this quarter. In none of these numbers has the "Make-up" of the front page been duplicated. The make-up of the seventh number, week's issue, was planned by Es-Ward, of King City. Plans were set by all the members of the staff and Miss Ward's was judged the best.

Up of the present issue, on a, the absence of the instructor, is attending the state teachers convention, is entirely the work of the staff, under the direction of the editor-in-chief. Proof-reading, head-line writing and make-up planning all had to be done by the reporters themselves. The staff hopes the readers will find that the students in journalism have profited by their instruction.

H. S. Basket Ball Tournney Nov. 21-22

The second annual high school outdoor basketball tournament of Northwest Missouri will be held at Maryville November 21 and 22. Many of the counties have already selected their teams to represent them here. Daviess, Holt, Gentry, Nodaway, Worth, Andrew, Dekalb and Livingston County have entered the tournament.

The Daviess County tournament was held at Jameson Saturday, November 8. The Coffey High School boys' and girls' teams were victorious.

Maitland High School won the Holt County tournament that was played at Mound City, October 31.

The Pickering High School boys won the Nodaway County Championship in the meet held at Maryville, November 8. The Skidmore High School girls won.

The Grandview Consolidated district will represent Gentry County here.

Livingston County had no tournament but the county chairman selected the Samsel High School to represent it at Maryville.

No arrangements have been made for the girls' tournament.

FIFTEEN ANSWER CALL FOR DEBATE

Fifteen students, the largest number in the history of the College, met with Mr. Harry A. Miller, Wednesday morning, November 12 to discuss plans for the inter-collegiate league of the State Teachers Colleges of Missouri, and the inter-Collegiate debating league.

The inter-collegiate league of the State Teachers Colleges consisting of orators and extemporaneous speakers will meet at Springfield March 20. The winners there will compete in the inter-state contest that will be held at Cape Girardeau April 24. Maryville, Cape Girardeau and Springfield are members of this league.

The intercollegiate debating league composed of Maryville, Warrensburg and Kirksville will meet May 1.

Mr. D. S. Robbins, former president of the Normal School at Stanberry, was a guest of Mr. T. H. Cook and a visitor at the College, Monday, November 10. Mr. Cook was a student and teacher at the Stanberry Normal during Mr. Robbins administration.

Mr. Robbins is now the head of the department of Physics State Teachers College at Las Vegas, New Mexico.

Before coming here, Mr. Robbins went to Chicago to confer with Dr. Michaelson and Dr. Gate, who are conducting an experiment in regard to one of the basic principles of Einstein's Theory of Relativity, an attempt to accurately determine the constancy of the velocity of light.

The last meeting during the fall quarter, of the social science club will be held at the home of T. H. Cook, 549 W. First street, November 19, at 7:30 P. M. Election of officers and other business will be taken up. If you want an office, come and see that you get one. If you do not want an office come and be sure that the club does not "put one over on you" by electing you in your absence.

During the program hour, Miss Mary Riggs will discuss Social Creeds of the Churches. Side-Lights of the Election will be the subject of a talk by Essie Ward.

Miss Hazel Criswell, former student who is teaching in Pattonsburg, spent the week-end, November 14-16 visiting friends in Maryville.

TALK GIVEN ON RED CROSS DRIVE

T. E. Burleson Stresses Red Cross Rural Work at Special Assembly.

F. E. Burleson, assisting manager South Western Division of the Red Cross gave a well organized talk on "Public Health Programs" at a special assembly in the College Auditorium last Monday afternoon.

Mr. Burleson's talk was very forceful and he emphasized the fact that he spoke with authority granted to him and all Red Cross workers by congressional enactment.

"The Red Cross works on Peace as well as on war" said Mr. Burleson and he cited recent instances which showed its work in time of peace; among other instances he mentioned the Japanese earthquake.

Many were surprised to learn that the rural work of the Red Cross is seventy-five percent of its entire work.

Mr. Burleson told of the financial condition of the Red Cross and explained that they must build up their membership to five million or they could not carry out their programs. Last year, 1923, the annual receipts were $1,666,000 while they spent $2,300,000 for disabled soldiers. The Red Cross was able to do this because of the large fund raised during the war.

The speaker made a good appeal for the Junior Red Cross by explaining the four things which the Junior Division is doing for children:

1. Teaches children to think.
2. Teaches ideas of service; the motto is "I serve."
3. Teaches international relationships by leading children to have higher concepts of Europeans.
4. Teaches that the future of America is in the children.

Mr. Burleson's talk at the college was a part of the county campaign to arouse interest in the Red Cross membership drive. Major Raynor is taking the subscriptions of the faculty and students. See him.

Dancing Recital A New Feature

A dancing recital will be given by the dancing classes of the College Thursday afternoon at 4:30 in the west gymnasium. This is a new feature recently added to the Physical Education department and will no doubt prove to be very interesting and worth while.

A large part of the program will be the Natural Dancing class.

The opening number will be a folk dance, followed by a country dance; a clog dance; a group folk dance, and the last numbers will be Natural dancing features.

This program is open to women who are interested and care to attend. Its purpose is to create an appreciation in Natural Dancing.

Mr. Wallin will offer Economic History of Europe 130 for the first time during the winter quarter. Economic conditions in Europe now are of special interest and since our economic welfare depends on that of Europe it behooves us to make a careful study of it.

This course will be an attempt to develop a background for an understanding of it; and to interpret present day economic condition in Europe.

Mr. C. C. Leeson of the College faculty, left Saturday for Manchester, Minn., to attend the funeral of his father, Henry A. Leeson, who died suddenly at the home of his son, Frank Leeson. Mr. Leeson's death occurred on his eightieth birthday anniversary.

Thelma Curmitt entertained Mr. and Mrs. Richman at Sunday Dinner November 9, at the Residence Hall. In the living room after dinner Mr. Richman sang a number of songs accompanied by Esther Monk.

ARMISTICE OBSERVED

Dr. Keller Urges Students Not to Forget the Spirit of War Giving—Richman and Student Octette Please Assembly.

"From all intent and purpose it might have been sixty years since Armistice Day, six years ago if we judge from the outward appearance of the American people of today," said Dr. Keller in his Armistice Day address in Assembly last Wednesday. America should never forget, the lesson which the Great War taught.

The Lord Commanded Israel to teach their children that the days in the wilderness was a memorial of the time when they were freed from bondage, but the period was really a period of sacrifice and denial.

Christmas, Thanksgiving, Fourth of July and Armistice Day are days not of revelry and merrymaking but days to call every American to their best. The Babylonians cut off the ears of their enemies and made towers to celebrate their victories but these were only revelries. We should not, like them, forget the purpose of the days but should make them mean something to us.

In a Thanksgiving Address six years ago President Wilson said that complete victory brought not peace alone, but won a moral glory in serving mankind. He set the world afire when he said war thus came to an end. War was fought to liberate mankind from all selfish desires and aims.

The American flag is an abstract symbol and stands for all the achievements of the wars from the Winter at Valley Forge to the World War. It stands for all the accomplishments of every American from the settlement of Virginia up to the present time. It stands for such ideals that every American citizen is willing to give up his life for it. Armistice Day should have an abstract meaning to every American. If war does not stand for achievement then this day is a mockery. The Great War stands for five achievements. The first is the duty and responsibility of every citizen to be bodily clean and free from vile living. It puts a quietus on idleness and loafing. No person should say that he is getting an education so that he will not have to work as hard as his ancestors but should say that he is getting an education to enable him to go out into the world and do his part of the work. It instilled a deeper feeling of humanity in the hearts of the American people. From appearances the people have forgotten the lesson of charity in the last six years, but we must not let it slip from the hearts of the American children. It taught the general universality of need for help.

It taught altruism in the business world. It found that the dollar was not the chief purpose of life.

Dr. Keller thinks that every American citizen should stand for better standards of universal peace if universal peace is to be possible.

Mr. Stanfield conducted the devotional service. Mr. Richman sang, "Let Us Have Peace." After the address the mixed octette sang "Nearer My God To Thee."

Program for Winter Quarter Ready Soon

The program for the Winter quarter will be out the latter part of this week, according to an announcement made by Dean Colbert. Students will thus be enabled to plan their course for the next term.

Mrs. Helen C. Hopkins and Miss Carrie Hopkins were Sunday guests of Mrs. Margaret Dodds of Bolckow.

Miss Holwig was the week-end guest of Mrs. Fred Burrill of Trenton.

MO. U. ACCREDITS COMMERCE WORK

Short Courses in Bookkeeping and Stenography to be Given.

Make way for progress and the best commerce department in the middle west. Every course that the Maryville S. T. C. commerce department offers will soon be accredited by the University of Missouri. At the present time very few colleges in the state have any commerce courses that are accepted at the state university.

Isadore Loeb, Dean of the Business and Public Administration School of the University of Missouri has already approved a number of the texts used in our own commerce department and he is ready to endorse a great many of the courses as they now stand.

Our S. T. C. commerce department has set the pace by offering the first advanced courses in commerce to meet the high standards for a commercial degree. Marketing, Salesmanship, Advertising, Business Law, Higher Accounting, and Banking are offered by only a few colleges in Missouri, but these courses are all offered in our commerce department and all of them count on the degree.

The work in the department is not all theory by any means. Positions in the sales department of the downtown stores have been found for practically all students of the salesmanship class and they are now "earning while they learn." This class is also selling the advertisements that appear in the Green and White.

A new feature that will give students the advantage of a combination state school-private commerce school will be inaugurated in the fall of 1925. Two complete courses, one in bookkeeping and another in stenography will be offered. These courses will enable students to begin work in six months without completing the four academic requirements of a degree. Certificates of proficiency will be given for satisfactory completion of the work.

Watch the commerce department grow.

Luncheon Enjoyed By 175 S. T. C. Friends

S. T. C. spirit ran high when 175 faculty members, alumni and former students of the college gathered for the luncheon held in the Elizabethan room of the Baltimore Hotel at Kansas City, November 14. This luncheon is an annual reunion held every year at the M. S. T. A., but this was the largest reunion ever held. Everyone enjoyed meeting old friends and a general spirit of friendship prevailed.

During the luncheon various tables were laid with each other in giving S. T. C. yell and songs. One group sang a song that went back to "the days of old" when the S. T. C. was called a Normal School.

Mr. Loomis was toastmaster. Mr. Wells told of the new plans for the library for the coming year. It is hoped that the appropriation for new books and equipment will make it possible to meet the needs of the summer students. The plan is to convert the east and west gymnasium into reading rooms. Arches will be cut through between the two rooms and the walls will be redecorated.

Miss Brainard gave a toast to the S. T. C.

Dr. Keller gave a short talk on extension work in the college.

The Bearcat football squad lost some property on their recent trip to Kirksville. During the game someone entered their dressing rooms and relieved the boys of their loose change.

A check for twenty-nine dollars and eighty-five cents was received from the Kirksville athletic committee in payment for the lost property. The authorities at Kirksville were very sorry that this happened.

Lucile and Glessie Wilson are teaching in the Braymer, Mo., Schools.

Apply Early For Practice Teaching

Students who wish to do practice teaching next quarter in the demonstration school, Room 124, will make their applications at once to Miss Keith, supervisor in charge, or to Mr. Phillips. These applications are requested early by Miss Keith who wishes to give some instructions regarding the work before the quarter begins. Preference will be given to those interested in rural work.

Those students who are now doing practice teaching in this school completed their work Friday, thus giving the final week for review for examinations. Some excellent work has been accomplished by them in the past quarter. At present some interesting silent reading classes are being conducted with the second grade by Thelma Brown. Physical education classes are conducted each day with the sixth and eighth grades by students of Miss Manley's classes.

Freshmen Win In Girls' Basketball

The College girls basketball tournament is in danger of being captured by the Freshmen girls. The Freshmen won from the Sophomores Monday by a one sided score of 34-0. The Sophomores played a good defense game with Merle Argo and Roberta Cook guards. Doris Schuler Freshmen forward was the star of the game, while Mildred New, Willette Todd and Dorothy Dow all showed up as promising material.

The Freshmen won from the Senior-Junior team Tuesday by an easy margin of 57-18. Lorene Bruckner, Mabel Raines and Evelyn Raines playing on the Senior Junior team were members of the College's Championship team last year, but failed to daunt the winning spirit of the Freshmen team.

Members of the Freshmen squad are:

Dorothy Dow, Fern Murray, Doris Schuler, Willette Todd, Merle Shriver, L. M. Raines, Marie Chandler, Mildred New.

Senior-Junior players are:

Mabel Raines, Lorene Bruckner, Jaunda Hawkins, Merle Hankins, Roberta Cook, Evelyn Raines.

BEARCATS 0 BUENA VISTA 0

The Bearcats Fought Hard and Were Not Outplayed by the Heavy Buena Vista Team. Eads Had Hard Luck On Place Kicks.

The College Bearcats and the big boys from Buena Vista College, champions of the Iowa conference, battled on a slippery field through four quarters to a scoreless tie last Friday.

Although outweighed, the Bearcats were not outplayed. They fought the whole game, making the big boys from Iowa play all the time and they threatened to score several times on place kicks. Eads, however, had hard luck and failed to boot the ball through the uprights.

A small crowd was in attendance when the game started at 2:30.

The Bearcats chose to defend the east goal and to kick off. The ball went over the goal and Buena Vista took the ball on the 20 yard line. Buena Vista punted to safety. The Bearcats brought the ball to the 40 yard line where Eads' place kick failed. There were few odds on either side and neither team made any ground. During this quarter, again place kick failed.

After the first quarter the game became a punting duel with the locals having the better of the argument. End runs were tried but the muddy field made them impossible. In line play both lines were holding. Again Eads tried a place kick, but failed.

About five minutes before the half ended Masters went in for Ashcroft at half. With a series of line plays the Bearcats started a march which ended on the 15 yard line at the close of the half. Score: Bearcats 0; Buena Vista, 0.

Both teams came back with the purpose to score but were no more successful than in the first half. End runs and line plays were about equal for each team.

In the last quarter Buena Vista threatened the Bearcat's goal when a pass was completed to the 20 yard line and by line plays Buena Vista gained Maryville's 12 yard line. The acting captain, "Red" Graham, who had been relieved at the close of the half, now went in for England as tackle. The line held and Buena Vista tried a place kick but was blocked by Stone. Ogden fell on the ball and was injured by one of Buena Vista's men falling on his head. Maryville took the ball a few yards and then punted to safety with just a few minutes to play. In this short time Buena Vista completed two forward passes which brought them to the 50 yard line. The game ended Bearcats 0; Buena Vista, 0.

EDUCATION NEWS.

Recent statistics show that big metropolitan newspapers are devoting as high as thirty-one per cent. of their news space to crime. Important industrial and world news about progress and development are crowded out by sensational matter that tends to develop more crime and lawlessness.

Oakland public schools have been experimenting this year to find if the radio can be used successfully to assist or to supplement classroom instruction. Lessons were planned by several of the teachers and then broadcast. Not only the children but the parents as well may hear the instruction given. This tends to bring the school and the home closer together. Children must concentrate and then be quick to obey the instruction. The school room is no longer set aside from the rest of the world but the walls of the classroom have been set on the circumference of the globe.

The meeting of National Society for Vocational Education will be held in Indianapolis, December 11-13. The program committee promises a most interesting program for this year. A special feature in connection with the convention will be a series of visits to vocational schools in industrial and commercial plants in Indiana and neighboring states on Tuesday and Wednesday preceding the convention.

November 9-16 of each year has been set aside all over the United States as Children's Book week. This is the sixth anniversary. The idea was originated by a group of children's story writers and tellers, and the object is to educate children in the use of books, and to lead them to read literature that is good, clean and wholesome. The good resulting from the observance of Children's Book week has been world-wide.

COLLEGE NEWS.

The many alumni and former students of the University of Missouri played a prominent part in the world-wide campaign during the week of November 8-15, to raise their part of the 800,000 to build a Memorial Union and Stadium on the campus of the University, in honor of the one hundred and three University boys who lost their lives in the World War.

Every alumnus and former student of the University of Missouri is expected to subscribe to a life membership of one hundred dollars in the fund, payable over a five year period, which entitles the subscriber to all the privileges of the Union and preferential rights for seats in the new stadium at all athletic contests.

Tabulation of the enrollment in various schools and colleges, which make the University of Missouri, show that the School of Education with a total enrollment of more than three hundred and fifty has made the largest percentage of gain of any of the divisions of the University. Next to the School of Education comes the Graduate Division, wherein graduates are taking work for advanced degrees and are doing research work. The increased demand for better trained teachers in Missouri is largely responsible for the increase.

The Board of Trustees of the Chicago University adopted plans October 16, 1924, for the improvement and development of Stagg Field.

There were two main divisions of the plan decided upon. First the erection of a Field House north of the Hartlett Gymnasium, and second, increase in the seating capacity of Stagg Field.

The Field House will be patterned after the best structures of the kind in the world. The erection of the building begins immediately.

The plans for increase in the seating capacity of the Field provides for 51,490 permanent seats including the present capacity. In addition to these plans 17,000 seats may be added at the south end of the field bringing the total capacity up to 68,490.

Expenses for these improvements are to be taken from the athletic fund.

The Indians, S. T. C., Cape Girardeau, football men, defeated Springfield in the season's game, for the first time in the history of the two schools. A superior brand of football was exhibited in the game which resulted in a 9-6 score.

The annual state convention of the Phi Theta Kappa sorority was held at Howard-Payne College, Fayette, in October of this year. This sorority is an honorary junior college sorority. Delegates from seven junior colleges in the state attended the meeting.

The home economics club of Central College, Fayette, recently made a field trip to Kansas City. The object of the trip was to inspect and go through the factories, in order to get a general idea of the workings of things dealing with the subject of home economics.

W. E. Schultz of the English department of Culver-Stockton College, Canton, Missouri, has been honored by receiving prominent mention in a new book "A Century Missouri Music." In addition to the biography of Mr. Schultz, a discussion is given to his contributions to the literature of music, and to the drama.

Drury College, Springfield, has become the home of another chapter of another national men's college fraternity. Kappa Alpha, Sigma Nu, and Theta Kappa Nu, are all represented at Drury.

Palmer College will meet the Kidder Institute football team on the Palmer field at Albany on November 21. In a game earlier in the season Palmer won from Kidder by a score of 14-7.

The State Teachers College, Warrensburg, has a pre-medical club. Seventeen students who intend to take up the study of medicine are the charter members. Meetings of the club will be held every two weeks under the direction of a faculty member, who has had several years study in medicine.

Did you know Kansas City is the home of a teachers college? The Teachers College Scout the first issue of the official paper of the Teachers' College arrived last week at the exchange desk of the Courier. The Scout is a real scout in every sense of the word—a newsy, peppy booster for its college.

Preliminary practice for basket ball has already started at S. T. C. Warrensburg.

Tarkio College, Tarkio, has organized an athletic association for girls. The organization has a constitution similar to that in use in standard colleges. Trophies will be awarded on the point system.

Dr. Fannie Dunn was one of the speakers at the district teachers' meeting held in Kirksville. Dr. Dunn is a specialist in rural education, Columbia University, New York.

Rockford College, Rockford, Illinois, observed "cap and gown day," October 24. The president of the college addressed the seniors on that day on the subject, "The Flat-hat Symbolic of the Struggle for the Fullness of Life."

A course in first aid will be offered to the students of State Teachers College, Kearney, Nebraska, next quarter.

Dr. Davis, former head of the education department of S. T. C., and at present president of the State Normal School, Dillon, Montana, has instituted the student activity fund idea in that school.

The Stroller

By ????

The Stroller has just completed a survey of the faculty. She had to pass some Dyes, of course, but she soon noticed that all the faculty were bound to Winn. Anthony, she learned, had just gone to Hopkins, after her return from Barnard and so the Stroller strolled over to a refreshing Tea garden. Walking farther, she entered a Glenn, where she was able to get a Frank (k) ken of an indispensable Miller and a well known Cook. Before leaving she had gained inspiration from a Painter of glorious thoughts.

After several weeks of study and contemplation about things in general, the Stroller has worked out, among numerous other things, the following piece of advice he wishes to pass out among the students. It may not apply in your case but it may help some of the instructors if a few students will practice it.

Be what you is;
Don't be what you isn't.
For if you is what you isn't
Then you isn't what you is.

The Stroller had been hearing about Mr. Phillips' new method in typewriting, so he decided to find out something definite for himself. Therefore, last week, he followed Mr. Phillips around and watched him work. He learned that Mr. Phillips had developed the action of the index finger of his right hand to such an extent, that he was able to turn out more letters per minute than any of the office girls.

The Stroller understands that many of the faculty are considering building homes. He wonders if Cupid is coming to the college or not.

Sunday evening, when the Stroller was strolling around Residence Hall about 7:30, suddenly a light was flashed in her face. She barely escaped being seen by jumping behind a tree. The light flashed again and this time revealing a Ford Coupe and its occupants. They—the occupants—evidently thought someone was after them, for they started the car and drove madly off. The Stroller thought sure Dean Barnard would hear him snicker, for it was Dean Barnard who carried the flashlight. She was merely hunting Miss Hopkin's car to get a magazine she had forgotten.

The Stroller knows why all the files are in the library. Files never could appreciate a male quartet.

Here is an exceedingly thrilling poem sent directly to the Stroller for publication.

The sofa sagged in the center,
The shades were pulled just so.
The family had retired,
The parlor light burned low.
Then came a sound from the sofa
As the clock was striking two,
And the freshman slammed her textbook.

With a thankful—"Well, I'm through."

"If a man dies, will he live again?" asked Dr. Keller in his Armistice Day address to the Newman Club last Tuesday morning. Dr. Keller answers the question that he will. The spirit of the men who have given their lives in American wars will live today. The revolutionary soldier died to give individuals a voice in their own taxation. Captain Lawrence in 1812 died to give the world freedom of the seas. The civil war soldier died to banish slavery from civilized nations. The Spanish-American soldier died to give freedom of government to the Cubans. The soldiers in the Great World War died to banish war from the human race. The spirit of the soldiers who died in the Great War ought to be living on earth today.

Everything dies for a purpose. In nature all things die, that new life may begin. Unless the world wakes up to the purpose of the Great War, and continues to put into practice our soldiers will have died in vain. Dr. Keller believes that they did not die in vain.

Dr. Keller wishes to state that this talk was repeated upon request.

Mr. Frank Walsh of Kansas City contributed one hundred dollars recently to the Newman Club House.
